PAYMENT OF FEES

UNIT POLICY—ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Students are officially enrolled at North Carolina A & T State University when all tuition, housing, meals and other applicable charges and fees have been paid in full. Students are responsible for full payment of tuition, fees and all other debts to the University by the published due date for the term. Failure to pay tuition, fees and all other debts will result in cancellation of the student's schedule/courses.

Students who add courses during the drop/add period, that result in additional tuition charges, are required to pay all charges and fees by the published due date. If the student fails to pay the additional charges, registration for the additional course(s) will be cancelled. Students who drop courses during the drop/add period, that result in a reduction in the tuition amount previously paid, will receive a refund if the transaction is made prior to the last day to drop and receive financial credit. It is the responsibility of the student to periodically check their student account for additional charges. It is also the student's responsibility to immediately respond to all bills and email notification of balances due the university.
