

NORTH CAROLINA AGRICULTURAL AND TECHNICAL STATE UNIVERSITY

SEC. VII—University Relations 1.0: Website

Privacy Policy

UNIVERSITY POLICY

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to disclose the terms governing the collection and use of information obtained from visits to the University home website www.ncat.edu.

The privacy policies for University administrative, academic, and operational entities such as offices, divisions, departments, units, and organizations may vary from this policy. Visitors are responsible for consulting university policies at <https://hub.ncat.edu/policies/index.php>.

The privacy policies for external and/or third party websites accessible from the University home website are not governed by this policy-- meaning these entities have their own privacy policies. Visitors are responsible for consulting the privacy policies for external and/or third party websites.

COLLECTED INFORMATION

The University home website is configured automatically to identify and obtain the following information from a user's electronic device(s) upon website access:

- The Internet Protocol (IP) address and domain name assigned to a device;
- The type of web browser and operating system used by the device;
- The date and time the website(s) is accessed;
- The website(s) or service(s) accessed.

If there is a University business purpose to collect additional information such as visitor names, e-mail addresses, phone numbers, street addresses, demographic information, birth date, etc., the University purpose will be clearly stated on the website. The information will be protected according to the applicable terms in the Data Classification Policy.

USE OF COLLECTED INFORMATION

The collected information will be used in the following manner:

- Identify the number of website visitors.
- Identify trends in website use.
- Improve customer service and customer satisfaction.
- Identify web browser(s) used by visitors.

The collected information is subjected to the North Carolina Public Records Act and other applicable laws and industry standards. The protection and disclosure of personable identifiable information will be in compliance with federal and state regulations as well as industry standards.

If there is a University business purpose to sell or disclose collected information to a third party(s), the University purpose will be clearly stated on the website.

USE OF COOKIES

The University home website uses cookies to identify and track web browsers. Cookies are information packets sent by the University home website to the web browsers of visitors upon access to University websites. Cookies are stored within the web browsers on users' electronic devices. The information packets are sent back to the requested University website each time a user accesses the website through the web browser. There are two main kinds of cookies: session cookies and persistent cookies. Session cookies are deleted from an electronic device when the web browser is closed, whereas persistent cookies remain stored on an electronic device until deleted, or until they reach an expiry date. Web browsers allow the acceptance or blocking of cookies. Blocking cookies may have a negative impact upon the usability of some websites.

CONTACT INFORMATION

If there are any questions regarding this policy, contact the Division of University Relations by e-mailing devinfo@ncat.edu or calling 336-256-0863.

REFERENCE(S)

Data Classification Policy

Date Original or Revision is Effective: Upon approval

Posted as an Interim Policy: September 21, 2011

Approved by the Board of Trustees

First approved: September 21, 2012

Revised: